

EVENTS and EXHIBITS January 2005

Here are just a few of the events and exhibits at our Museums this month. Please visit individual Museum web sites for complete listings.

EVENTS

January 20

Fraunces Tavern© Museum

Author Lecture: The Road to Valley Forge, 6:30 PM

Author John Buchanan discusses how Washington built the army that won the Revolution.

More info at www.frauncestavernmuseum.org or 212.425.1778

January 22

South Street Seaport Museum

Family Storybook Program: Harlem is..., 1-4 PM

Warm up with a cup of hot chocolate and tales of Harlem.

This week's featured story: "Irene and the Big, Fine Nickel."

For more info, visit www.southstseaport.org or call 212.748.8758

January 28

Museum of Chinese in the Americas

Author's Talk: Mary Ting Yi Lui, Chinatown Trunk Mystery, 6-7 PM.

Through the unsolved murder case of Elsie Sigel, Mary Ting Yi Lui offers a fascinating look at social and sexual relations between Chinese and non-Chinese populations in New York City in 1909.

For more info, visit www.moca-nyc.org or call 212.619.4785

January 30

Museum of Jewish Heritage-A Living Memorial to the Holocaust

Film & Discussion Double Feature: Collector of Bedford Street (2002, 35 min) and Mayor of the West Side (2003, 38 min).

Two acclaimed documentaries about the lives of developmentally disabled New Yorkers. Advanced reservations recommended.

For more info, visit www.mjhnyc.org or call 212.619.4785

Daily

New York City Fire Museum

Guided tour for groups or classes (ten or more), by reservation

Combines firefighting history with fire safety information, and is conducted by retired NYC fire fighters.

For more info, call 212.691.1303 ext 13

EXHIBITS

National Museum of the American Indian

New Tribes: New York

January 29, 2005–April 9, 2006

For more information, visit www.nmai.si.edu

Museum of Jewish Heritage-A Living Memorial to the Holocaust

Kippur: Three Weeks in October

Through February 27, 2005

For more information, visit www.mjhnyc.org

Museum of Chinese in the Americas

Have You Eaten Yet?: The Chinese Restaurant in America

Through June 30, 2005

For more information, visit www.moca-nyc.org

The New York City Police Museum

Behind the Scenes: A Photographic Look into the NYPD

Permanent Exhibit

For more information, visit www.nycpolicemuseum.org

Fraunces Tavern© Museum

John Jay: A New Yorker who Changed the Nation

January 18–June 17, 2005

More info at www.frauncestavernmuseum.org or 212.425.1778

Skyscraper Museum

World Trade Center exhibit-featuring original model of the building complex created for the Port Authority

Through December 2006

For more information, visit www.skyscraper.org

Lower East Side Tenement Museum

Dualism in America: An art installation in the Windows of 97 Orchard Street by Wendy Fok

Through December 2005

For more info, visit www.tenement.org or call 212.748.8735

New York State Governor
George P. Pataki
LMDC Chairman
James A. Weinstein

New York City Mayor
Michael R. Bloomberg
LMDC President
Kevin McCarpen

