

EVENTS and EXHIBITS September 2005

Here are just a few of the events and exhibits at our Museums this month. Please visit individual Museum web sites for complete listings.

EVENTS

- Sept 3 Fraunces Tavern® Museum
Family Saturdays: Sign of the Times, 11 AM–4 PM (drop in)
Learn about the history of tavern signs and then paint your own.
More info at www.frauncestavernmuseum.org or 212.425.1778
- Sept 10 National Museum of the American Indian
Children's Storybook Reading and Workshop, 12 PM
Listen to readings of Love Flute; The Flute Player: An Apache Folktale; and Native Heartbeat. Then make panpipes using straws with José Montano (Aymara) in a hands-on workshop.
More information at www.americanindian.si.edu
- Sept 14 Museum of Jewish Heritage—A Living Memorial to the Holocaust
Stand-up comedy with Cory Kahaney and special guests. A finalist on NBC's Last Comic Standing and star of her own special on Comedy Central, Ms. Kahaney pays homage to Jewish female comedians. More information at www.mjhnyc.org
- Sept 18 Eldridge Street Project
Concert: Zagnut Orkestar, 2 PM
Musician-traveler Matthew Fass and his brass ensemble perform exuberant, uplifting Balkan village music.
More information at www.eldridgestreet.org
- Sep 10, 24 Museum of Chinese in the Americas
Historical Walking Tour of Chinatown Eateries, 1 PM–2:30 PM
Join us to see how these eateries have helped shape Chinatown.
More information and reservations at (212) 619-4785
- Sept 27 The Skyscraper Museum
Making Manhattan Modern: The Evolution of Skyscraper Style. Author Eric Nash discusses the development of skyscrapers from early eclecticism and Art Deco to the emergence of the International Style and beyond. At the Center for Architecture.
More information at www.skyscraper.org

EXHIBITS

Museum of Chinese in the Americas

Archivist of the "Yellow Peril": Yoshio Kishi Collecting for a New America. A seminal collection of Americana that both demonizes and humanizes the Asian American community.

Through December 31, 2005

For more information please call (212) 619-4785

Museum of Jewish Heritage—A Living Memorial to the Holocaust

Ours To Fight For: American Jews in the Second World War

Through December 30, 2005

More information at www.ourstofightfor.org

National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution

New Tribe: New York—A retrospective of the Spiderwoman Theater, America's longest running women's theater company

Through April 9, 2006

More information at www.americanindian.si.edu

New York City Police Museum

*Behind the Green Lights—*This exhibition will transport visitors back in time to 1910, affording a glimpse of early police culture

Beginning June 7, 2005

For more information, visit www.nycpolicemuseum.org

Fraunces Tavern® Museum

Fighting for Freedom: Black Patriots and Black Loyalists

June 28, 2005–June 19, 2006

More info at www.frauncestavernmuseum.org or 212.425.1778

Ellis Island Immigration Museum

*Augustus Frederick Sherman: Ellis Island Portraits—*featuring 120 prints from 1900-1920 of temporarily detained immigrants

Through September 5, 2005

More information at www.statueofliberty.org or 212.561.4500

Lower East Side Tenement Museum

RE:MIXED A Look at America's New Immigrant Communities

Artist Tomei Arai explores the diverse paths that immigrants have traveled and used to reshape American subculture in New York

Through December 2005

More information at www.tenement.org or 212.431.0233

