

EVENTS and EXHIBITS October 2005

Here are just a few of the events and exhibits at our Museums this month. Please visit individual Museum web sites for complete listings.

EVENTS

- Oct 2 South Street Seaport Museum
Fish Tales: Fulton Fish Market Remembered, 1-4 PM (ongoing)
Come aboard the Peking and listen to classic fish tales while we learn about the critters of the East River. Look through a microscope at plankton, diatoms, and creeping water bears. Free with museum admission. More information at 212.748.8758
- Oct 6 Museum of Chinese in the Americas
Benefit Performance: No Foreigners Beyond This Point, 8 PM
On stage at The Culture Project, 45 Bleeker Street.
Reservations required at 212-619-4785.
More information at www.moca-nyc.org
- Oct 18 The Skyscraper Museum
The American Skyscraper: Cultural Histories, 6:30 PM
Editor Roberta Moudry discusses the multiple dimensions of the skyscraper in an urban American landscape. At the Center for Architecture, 536 LaGuardia Place, between Bleeker and West 3rd Street. More information at www.skyscraper.org
- Oct 23 Museum of Jewish Heritage-A Living Memorial to the Holocaust
Debbie Friedman in Concert, 2:30 PM. Bring the whole family to celebrate Sukkot with this beloved singer, songwriter, and guitarist. More information at www.mjhnyc.org
- Daily National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution
Films for Kids. Kluscap and His People + Creation, 10:30, 11:30 AM
Two animations by Penobscot children tell of the creation of the world, people, and animals. (1992, Total time: 12 min.) Through October 25. More information at www.americanindian.si.edu
- Daily Ellis Island Immigration Museum
Remember the Dream®, Seven shows daily. A theatrical production that dramatizes the challenges of immigration. More info at www.statueofliberty.org or 212.561.4500

EXHIBITS

South Street Seaport

Child's Play at the Seaport: Toys, Dolls, and Games from the 19th and Early 20th Centuries.

Featuring miniature versions of the Coney Island Amusement Park, skyscrapers and a spectacular "Parade of Ships at the Brooklyn Bridge." Schermerhorn Row Galleries, through December, 2005. More information at www.southstseaport.org

Museum of Chinese in the Americas

Many True Stories: Life in Chinatown On and After September 11.

Curated by the students from the Dr. Sun Yat Sen Middle School 131 Oral History Class. Features interview recordings, photographs and artifacts that the students collected over a semester.

More information at www.moca-nyc.org

National Museum of the American Indian, Smithsonian Institution

New Tribe: New York-A retrospective of the Spiderwoman Theater, America's longest running women's theater company
Through April 9, 2006

For more information, visit www.americanindian.si.edu

New York City Police Museum

Behind the Green Lights-This exhibition will transport visitors back in time to 1910, affording a glimpse of early police culture

For more information, visit www.nycpolicemuseum.org

Fraunces Tavern© Museum

Fighting for Freedom: Black Patriots and Black Loyalists
June 28, 2005-June 19, 2006

More info at www.frauncestavernmuseum.org or 212.425.1778

The Skyscraper Museum

World Trade Center Original Model. Created for the Port Authority of NY and NJ by the architect Minoru Yamasaki, the recently-conserved model is more than 9-feet tall. Through June 2006. More information at www.skyscraper.org

Lower East Side Tenement Museum

RE:MIXED A Look at America's New Immigrant Communities

Artist Tomei Arai explores the diverse paths that immigrants have traveled and used to reshape American subculture in New York.

